Dear Clients and Partners,

I would like to share an update on CENTRAVIS operations and reaffirm our commitment to maintaining consistent production performance and reliable service for our customers worldwide.

Our manufacturing facilities continue to operate as scheduled, with all essential business processes — including procurement, supply chain coordination, and logistics — functioning without disruption. This operational continuity enables us to maintain planned production volumes, fulfill contractual obligations, and deliver customer orders within agreed timelines.

At CENTRAVIS, we remain focused on ensuring stable operations, meeting customer expectations, and maintaining open communication with our business partners. As an additional measure of transparency, we can provide the most recent Bureau Veritas audit reports upon request to confirm our current operational status.

We sincerely appreciate the trust and confidence you continue to place in CENTRAVIS.

Best regards,
Artem Atanasov
