FROM: Artem Atanasov, Chief Sales Officer, Centravis

Dear Clients and Partners,

We are pleased to report that Centravis continues to operate without interruption across all production facilities. Our stable access to electricity, water, and core infrastructure allows us to maintain full production capacity and meet delivery commitments with consistency and precision.

We are also committed to continuous progress. Our team is actively improving internal workflows and integrating advanced technologies to further enhance product quality and agility in responding to your evolving requirements.

Please rest assured that we are doing everything possible to ensure that all manufacturing processes run smoothly and that shipments are carried out without delay. As proof of our operational stability, we are always ready to provide up-to-date Bureau Veritas reports, production videos, or even support online audits. We value transparency and welcome open communication.

Thank you for your continued trust and partnership.

Best regards,
Artem Atanasov
