Dear Clients and Partners,

We are pleased to confirm that Centravis remains fully operational across all our production facilities. Thanks to stable access to electricity, water, and key infrastructure, we are maintaining uninterrupted workflows and delivering all orders on schedule. Business continuity and reliability remain our highest priorities.

To ensure complete transparency and build mutual confidence, we are always ready to provide up-to-date Bureau Veritas audit reports, video footage from our production lines, or arrange online audits. We welcome open communication and are committed to keeping our partners fully informed at every step.

Thank you for your ongoing trust and collaboration.
