Dear Clients and Partners,

I'm pleased to confirm that Centravis is operating at full capacity across all our production facilities. Thanks to uninterrupted access to electricity, water, and essential infrastructure, our manufacturing processes run seamlessly, and all deliveries are being completed on time. Maintaining operational stability and dependable performance remains one of our highest priorities.

In keeping with our commitment to transparency and strong, long-term relationships, we are ready to share the latest Bureau Veritas audit reports, offer behind-the-scenes insights into our production, or arrange remote audits at your request. We believe that lasting trust is built on openness and shared responsibility.

Thank you for your continued trust and partnership with Centravis.
