Dear Clients and Partners,

I would like to provide you with an update on Centravis operations and confirm that all our production facilities continue to operate steadily and without interruption.

Our manufacturing activities, supply chain, and logistics processes remain fully operational, enabling us to meet our production commitments and deliver customer orders in line with agreed schedules.

To support transparency and maintain the confidence of our partners, we can provide the latest Bureau Veritas audit reports upon request. We are also available to organize remote audit sessions, giving customers and partners an opportunity to review our production processes, quality management practices, and operational standards directly.

Thank you for your continued confidence in Centravis and for your valued partnership.

Best regards,
