Dear Clients and Partners,

As we conclude another eventful week at Centravis, I am delighted to share with you the highlights and current status of our operations.

This week, Centravis proudly celebrated Metallurgist Day, a significant event for our industry and particularly for our team. We were honored to host esteemed guests from the Nikopol City Council at our facilities. The event included an awards ceremony where our employees were recognized for their exceptional dedication and hard work. They received certificates and commemorative gifts in appreciation of their commitment. Our CEO, Yuriy Atanasov, also extended his gratitude to the entire team, emphasizing our continuous effort to ensure a safe and stable working environment for everyone at Centravis.

Our operations are running smoothly, supported by stable energy and water supplies which allow us to operate without any disruptions. Our equipment across all departments is functioning optimally, with no recorded issues, ensuring that our production lines are as efficient as ever. Furthermore, the CentraVis team is showing remarkable dedication and motivation, fully equipped to meet and overcome any challenges that come our way.

We thank you for your continued partnership and trust in CentraVis. It is with your support that we continue to strive for excellence and innovate within our industry.

Best regards,
Artem Atanasov
